The Red falcon

Chapter 1

Red Falcon

Last time we left Diana on a boat heading towards Dr. Evil Hair's Island. Diana reaches the island to find herself lying on the beach; Diana wakes up and walks towards the base. The base is in rubble; Diana sees a large hole in the side of the base. Diana walks in the base; Diana looks around the base.

Diana sees a locker on a damage wall; she opens it to find two weapons. Diana takes the weapons out of the locker; she walks towards the lab. The lab is trashed but, the table is still standing. Diana walks up to the table and lies down and takes a nap; Diana sleeps until morning.

Diana wakes up to see a case next to the computer; she walks to the case. She picks up the case and places it on the table; she opens the case. She sees a leather jump suit in the case; she picks the jump suit up. Diana looks at the red suit; she walks into the back room.

Diana puts the red suit on; and straps the guns to her legs. She looks to the right and sees a note on the wall. The note is under a lever, on it is written "PULL ME!" She pulls the lever. The floor opens, Diana walks down the ramp.

Diana walks towards a light at the end of the ramp. She sees a large door at the end of the hallway. She walks towards the door, the door opens, and she walks thru the doorway. She sees a red bike in the middle of a large room. On the wall toward the right side is a table, a pair of red gloves and a red helmet.

(The Red Falcon Demo)

She walks over to the table and puts the gloves and the helmet on. Diana gets on the bike, "indemnify yourself", "RED FALCON" said Diana. She looks at the bike, and asks what are you? "I'm HALE2000" replied the bike. I'm here to help you on your mission, "what mission?" asked Diana.

"To take out John Smith!" replied Hale, Diana starts the bike. "Let's get going then" replied Diana, "one problem, I can't swim" replied Hale. "How do we get off the Island?" asked Diana. Hale remotely closes the doors and opens the floor, Diana and Hale drives down the ramp.

She drives into a tunnel under the base and ocean floor, she gets to the ghost town. She drives out of the tunnel on the right side of the road. She drives onto the road but, when she arrives at the base it was empty. John and the others moved to the new base, Diana gets off the bike.

Meanwhile, John is in his new room at the new base, the base is on the water. The new base is an air craft career with all of John toys. John walks out of his room and up to the deck of the ship. Tracy and Kim are waiting at the bow of the ship; Todd and Mike are on the bridge looking over the deck. John walks up to Tracy and Kim; Todd gets a phone call; he answers the phone; it's Jack.

Jack tells Todd that Diana is on the base, Todd yells down to John; "John!" "Come up here!" John runs up to the bridge; "what's up Todd!" he looks at John and tells him "Diana is alive!", "she's on Jacks base". John runs back down to Tracy and Kim; "Diana is alive and she is on Jacks base". Mike calls down to John; "meet me down below", John and mike meet in the hanger. Mike walks over to Sam and opens the door; "get in John" said Mike, John gets into Sam.

(The Red Falcon Demo)

Mike closes the door and tells John to push the blue button, he pushes the button; Sam transforms into a Tank. "I added this to Sam"; "It will help you on your missions". John pushes the button to turn Sam back into a car; he opens the door and steps out of the car. A voice comes over the loud speaker, its Todd calling Mike to the bridge.

Meanwhile, Diana is walking into the hanger of the old base. She walks up into the space ship; Jack hides behind the front of the ship. He takes out his weapon and walks towards the back of the ship; Diana walks out of the ship; he stops and hides. Diana walks over to the control panel; she opens the tunnel. She starts to walk over to the ship but, sees Jack behind the landing gear.

She fires at Jack; he returns firing at her, Diana fires back and hits him. He runs over to the exit but, she hits him again; Jack falls to the floor. She walks up to Jack lying in a pool of blood she leans over; "your base is mine know Jack". She gets up and walks down the tunnel; towards a small door on the left side of the tunnel.

Diana walks into a small room; on the right side are some weapons, on the left side are vests. She looks in the middle; there is a small table, on the table is a large weapon. She takes the weapon and walks back to her bike; she puts the weapon in her pack. "This will take John out!" Diana looks over at Jack but, Jack was gone.

"To Be Continuing".
