The Sleeping Spy

Chapter 1

First Mission

You never know what happens when you fall asleep. But one teen will know that falling asleep will kill your dreams. Being a teen is bad enough but being a spy is worse when you're asleep. It all started when he was on the internet looking up a Website.

This website will change his life; a life of a spy. John Smith filled out a form to win a contest, but what he wins is not what he expects. When the time comes he got a letter saying to meet. John was subspecies at first, but he went to pick up his winnings.

On the way to pick up his winnings he was the one that got picked up. Two men snatched him off the street and shoved him in to a van. That took him to a dark room with a light shining on him. John was in the dark room for some time with the light shining on his face.

Then one of the men came into the room John cried out "let me go.", but the man said nothing. Then the man left the room. John is sitting in a chair with a light in his eyes and tied to a chair. The other man came in with a case with a computer and wires attached to it. The man hooked the wires to his head with a band.

Then hooked up the computer, John cried out "let me go." The man said that he has won the chance to be a spy. He said that he will not remember any of this. That he will be asleep for the whole time he's a spy.

John said "that he didn't sign up for being a spy." The man said when you filled out the form you checked the yes box. It was the want to be a spy check box. So welcome to the spy game John Smith.

The man turned on the computer and ran the program. John closed his eyes and went to sleep. When John opened his eyes he was in his bed. His mother said, "Time to get up and go to school John."

John got his cloths on and went to school and meet up with his friends. That day at school was good for John and his friends. John got home had dinner, and then went to bed. That night after John went to sleep the program kicked in.

Now John Smith the spy had come out. He climbed out his window. He meets up with the two men then his training started. The two men trained him all night until the sun came up. John climbed back in his window John's mother came in.

His mother said "time to get up and it's time for school." When John woke up his body was hearing John got dress, and then went to school. At school he meets up with his friends. John had a hard time at school, so they let him go home.

Once home John went to bed the program kicked in. John meets up with the two men to get the details on his first mission. On this mission he has to bring in pictures of an arms dealer. All he had to do is get pictures of the weapons they stole.

With the arms dealer and get the pictures back to them. John started on his way on the mission. John got into the van and the two men took him to the airport. John got onto a plane and the plane took off in to the air.

When the plane landed, John meets a woman with a car. The woman told John to get in the car, and then she drove off. John and the woman drove to a warehouse. Once they reached the warehouse doors opened. John and the woman drove inside the warehouse then the woman and John got out.

In the warehouse there was a black car with red flames on the side. Next to it was a table with some tools in a toolbox. Next to the toolbox was a part for the car and a rag. Standing on the side of the table was a woman with a power tool in her hand.

The other woman walked up to the woman with the power tool. She told her that his name is John and he's a teen spy. The woman with the power tool looked at him and said, "Hello teen spy." John walked up to her and said, "Hello" to the woman with the power tool.

The other woman said, "Let's gets started on the mission John." The woman with the power tool told John that the car is for him. She also told him the car has features to help him on his mission. John talks to the women for some time, then got in to the black car.

John drove out of the warehouse, and then got on the road. John drove for a half hour before the car started to talk. John stopped the car on the side of the road opened the door. The car told John that she was S.A.M Self Activated Mobile.

John got back in the car and back on the road and drove on. The car was telling John the names of the women. That John had to go to the desert and that she can drive on the sand. They get to the desert and Sam changes her color and body.

Sam turns into a jeep and John drives onto the desert. John said "you are an awesome car Sam" and drove on. Sam said "thanks and you are awesome too John Smith the teen spy." John and Sam got to the site of the weapons and John got out of the jeep.

John when to the back of the jeep and took out a case. The case had a camera, money, and binoculars. John took out the binoculars. John used the binoculars and looked at the site. John saw the weapons dealer and took out the camera and took a picture.

When John put the camera back in the case he turned around and a big man was there. The big man took out his pistol and put it on John's side. John told him that he was just getting some pictures of the desert.

The Sleeping Spy (Demo)

The big man takes his pistol and hits the back of John's head.

John was knocked out. The big man put John in the back of the jeep. The big man drove Sam to the weapons site where the dealer was. The big man got out of the jeep went up to the dealer. He said that he found this kid taking pictures of the site.

The dealer told him to put the kid in the tent and tie him up. The big man walked to the jeep and carried John to the tent. He tied John up with a rope to a tent poll then walked out. John awoke to see that he was tied up in a tent of the dealer.

John looks around the tent looking for a way to get his hands free. John looks at the tent entrance when the big man comes back in. The big man looks at John and said "Well you're awake what your name?" John gave him the name James Stone a fake name that was programmed in.

The big man said, "So James, tell me the truth, what are you doing here?" John said "I was taking pictures of the desert for a school report." The big man looked at John and said "James you're a long ways from school." John told the big man I'm on a school trip and the jeep is my friends.

John stared at the big man with sweat on his head. The big man left the tent and went to the jeep he took out the camera. The big man came back in the tent holding the camera. The big man took out the memory card and put it in his pocket.

He gave the camera to John and untied his hands. The big man walked out the tent to John's jeep told James he can go. John drove towards the road with Sam still in jeep mode. John looked back to see if the big man was following him.

When John and Sam got to the road Sam revert back to the black car. Sam said "if the big man was following us we lost him for now John." John and Sam got back to the warehouse and drove in. John got out of the car and walked over to one of the women named Tracy and told her what had happened.

John told her that he lost the pictures to the big man. She said "we have to get them back from the big man." John gave her the description of the big man and the dealer. The other woman, Kim took out a computer to add the description of the big man.

John and the two women went into a room in the warehouse to make a plan. The room had a big screen and a computer. One of the women Kim put a scan disk in the computer. John and Tracy looked at the scan disk. They found the big man that has the memory card with the pictures.

The woman Kim on the computer said "that the name of the big man is John Hawkins." The other woman Tracy said "we need to get close to John Hawkins." John said "that one of you has to get close to him because he knows me." Tracy said "OK, I will do it, but we need to get to know him."

Kim on the computer said "that he likes to hanging out at the Boom Boom club." Tracy said "that is where we go tonight to meet John Hawkins." IN the meantime John's mother is still at work thinking of John home sick. His mother picks up the phone to call John at home.

John gets a call on his cell phone from his mother. John fakes being sick. John tells his mother that he's fine and not to rush home, his mother said "OK." John said "that he needs to go home tonight, and then he'll come back later." John said "that you two don't need me tonight to meet John Hawkins."

The women agree with John and all of them get in to the car and leave. They get to the airport and John gets on the plane to go home to his bed. But when he got on the plane John Hawkins was on the plane. John ran out of the plane to the two women outside.

John told them that the big man is on the plane to his town. John said I think he seen the pictures on the scan disk. Tracy said "I think he knows who you are." Kim said "and where you live." John and the two women got on the plane to John's town.

John sat behind him and the two women sat in the seats next to him. John didn't make a sound for the whole trip and when the plane landed John got off last. The two women got off with the big man then he got off. The two women waited for John to get off the plane then they walked to the door.

The big man got into a cab and drove off. John and the two women got into a cab and told the driver to follow that cab. The big man stopped at a warehouse outside of town near John's school. John and the women went up to the warehouse as they were following the big man.

John and the women looked in the side window to see what was up. What they saw was the big man talking to another person with a mask on. John and the women went back to the car then took John home. John's mother was not home yet so John went inside and upstairs to his room.

Right then his mother came home to check on John. John was upstairs in his bed with the covers over him asleep, when his mother came in. John's mother awoke him up to tell him that she is home and if he needed anything. John said "no, he was OK" and his mother went back downstairs.

In the meantime the women are back at the warehouse sitting in the cab. The big man comes out of the warehouse and gets into the other cab as the women followed him. In the meantime John is upstairs in his room waiting for his mother to go back to work. In the meantime the women are following the big man to a bar.

The Sleeping Spy (Demo)

The big man gets out and the cab leaves him there and drives off.

The women take the cab back to the warehouse where the two men are. Back at John's place his mother leaves to go back to work. The women take the cab and head to John's place to pick him up. The cab leaves, the women are at John's place. John gets into the car and they leave.

John and the two women get to the bar to spy on the big man. John stays in the car. When the women get in the bar the big man is sitting at a table having a drink. The woman goes up to the bar and orders a drink one of the women asked the bar tender for a glass of wine. Then they sit down at a table near the big man drinking there drinks.

In the meantime John is still in the car waiting for the women to come back out. In the bar Tracy is flirting with the big man. The big man walked up to the women. The big man talks to one of the Tracy and asks her on a date. The women leave the bar and gets in the car. John asks did you make contact with him.

Tracy said "yes, I did we are going out tonight for dinner." The other one said "well; now we can get the scan disk back from the big man." John and the women get back to John's place to drop him off. Kim went inside with John. Kim searched for bugs then went back out to the car and the two women drove off.

John went back upstairs to his room and went back to bed until, his mother gets home. In the meantime the women are at the warehouse looking around then the two men show up. The two men talk to the women about the big man that was there earlier. The two men said that the big man was looking for James Jones.

The women told that John was at the weapon site and the big man's name is John Hawkins. The women told the men that Tracy made contact and has a date with him tonight. The men said "that tonight you three need to get back the scan disk and bring it to him." In the meantime John's mother gets home from work for dinner.

John and his mother have dinner, and then John goes to bed, until the women get there. In the meantime the women are getting ready for the big man. They are planning to get the scan disk back from the big man tonight. Tracy is in a red dress for her date with the big man. Kim is in a blue dress.

The two women walk out to the car and drive to the bar to meet the big man. The two women walk into the bar and meet the big man they say hello. Kim goes to the bar and orders a red wine. She sits down on the stool drinking her red wine watching the big man.

Tracy with the big man ordered a shot of whiskey for the both of them. Tracy drinks the shot fast then the big man drinks his shot. The two of them do this for about three hours until the big man was tipsy. Kim is still at the bar drinking wine watching.

The big man is so tipsy that the Tracy goes to talk to Kim at the bar. Tracy tells her that he has a room upstairs number 32. She tells her to get the key so she can search the room for the scan disk. She goes back to the big man and snatches the key from his pocket.

She brings the key to the Kim to search the room. Kim goes upstairs to the room 32 and opens the door. The room is small with one bed and a bathroom by the door. The dresser is back against the wall with a television on the top.

Kim searches the dresser drawer by drawer but doesn't find the scan disk. So she searches the bathroom and finds nothing, then she searches the bed. In the meantime the big man is so tipsy that he takes Tracy to his room. Kim is still in the room where she hears the door rattled.

So she hides behind the door but the big man doesn't have his key. The big man and Tracy go back downstairs for the spare key. Kim still in the room finishes searches the room. She goes back downstairs to the bar were Tracy meets her.

Kim tells her that the scan disk is not in the room that he must have it on him. So Tracy walks back to the big man and put the key back in his pocket. She tells him that she found the key to the room. The big man and Tracy go back upstairs to his room and when he opens the door.

Tracy knocks him out and searches him but he doesn't have it on him. Tracy goes back downstairs to Kim that was sitting at the bar. The two women go out to the car and drive back to the warehouse. In the meantime John is waking up and get dressed.

John goes outside to get his bike to meet the women at the warehouse. John rides down the street to the warehouse and parks his bike. John goes in the warehouse where the women are and asks them. Did you get the scan disk one of the women tells him that he didn't have it.

John and the women go out to the car then drove back to the bar to pick up the big man. John and the two women go into the bar and go upstairs. They take the big man out the back door to the car and put him in the back of the car. The three of them drove back to the warehouse.

They get back, John and the two women carry the big man into the warehouse. John said "we can put him in the office and tie him to the chair." "Then one of us can put on a disguise and make him tell us where the scan disk is." Kim said "OK, you do it John" and "I have the one disguise for you."

John puts the disguise on and goes into the office and wakes the big man. The big man awakes to see a man looking at him John said "hello big man." "So who are you," said the big man. John said "my name is John Smith." So big man where is the scandisk you took from James Stone's camera?

The big man said "I don't know what you are talking about; if I did I wouldn't tell you." John shows him a needle and said, yes you will, tell me everything. So John put's the needle in the big man's arm and injects it into his arm. The truth serum kicks in about 20 minutes, the other two women come in.

Tracy asks the big man where the scan disk you took from James Stone is. With a daze the big man tells her that the scan disk is in a safety deposit box. Kim asks where the safety deposit box is and you will give us the key. The big man tells them that the safety deposit box is in the first bank.

John asks him where the arms dealer is. The big man tells John where the arms dealer is. The two women go out to the car and drives to the bank, to get the scan disk. John goes out to him bike and gets the case that the two men gave him. John opens the case and takes out the money.

In the meantime the women get to the first bank Tracy shows the key. The teller takes the key and gets the safety deposit box from the vault. The teller takes out the box and brings it to the Tracy. She opens the box and there is the scan disk inside the safety deposit box.

She takes it and puts it in her chest then she gives the box back to the teller. Tracy tells the Kim let's get back to the warehouse. In the meantime John has called a cab to go to the airport John gets in the cab. The cab drives off to the airport and on the way John Calls the women.

On the phone John tells them to tell the two men that he's going to get the dealer. The women drive to the airport to back him up. The two women arrive at the airport and get on the plane with John. Kim tells John that you can't do it alone and we are a team.

The Sleeping Spy (Demo)

The plane lands and the three of them get off the plane and go to the warehouse. They get to the warehouse and the two men are there waiting for them. John told the two men where the dealer is and he needs their support. The two men agree to get the job done, the two women agreed as well.

Kim went to the car and said "I will call you when the car is done." Later that night Kim called John and said "that the car is ready." Kim told John all about the weapons that she put on Sam. At that time they all got into Sam to go get the weapons dealer and the weapons he stole.

They all drove to the docks and John told Sam to load the weapons and fire at the dealer. The dealer heard the shot and shot back at John and the others. When they got to the end of the docks that all jumped out of Sam. Sam drove a little back and fired the missiles at the dealer's people.

The whole dock was on fire and everything was exploding around them. When the smoke cleared and the gun fire ended all the dealers people were lying around dead. John and the others got back into Sam and drove back to the warehouse. John and all the others got out of the car and told John good job.

The two men and John got into the car and drove to the airport John said "the car won't fit." One of the men took the driver's seat and Sam was a plane. They landed at the airport at home and drove to the warehouse. That parked the car inside and John got out of the car and walked to his bike. John rides his bike home and went upstairs then went to bed where he slept all night. The two men came in his room and said "until next time kid." Then one of the men bent down to say mission complete John. We hope to see you on the team next time and many more missions.
