Dr. Evil Hairs Island

Chapter 1

The New Beginning

The new beginning of teen spy is that John and the Smith families are a team of spies. John wakes up from his bed and walks downstairs to the living room and sits in front of the T.V. Just then the doorbell rang, it was Todd. John looks at him with a smile on his face. Todd hands John a folder with a picture and walks into the room and sits in a chair.

John stares at the folder, then looks at Todd and says "so what is this for?" "Your new mission" said Todd. Todd gets up from the chair and walks outside to the semi outside as John follows behind. Mike opens the back door of the semi for John and Todd to walk up the ramp into the semi. Kim is working on his father's bike who he believes to be dead and Tracy sitting at the computer running a program for the bikes weapons.

John and Todd walk into the backroom, John sits down at the table and Todd starts to brief him on the mission. Tracy and Kim walk in and sit down next to John. Kim starts to brief John on the bike. Tracy updates John on the weapons for the front and Kim briefs him on the other features of the bike. As Kim tells John about how his bike can turn into a flight suit with weapons John's eyes light up, "that is so cool" said John.

Todd looks at John with a smile on his face and said "don't get too excited, you will still need flight school and learn how to fly". His training started the next day when John woke up. John and the others went outside behind the base to begin. In the field was an airstrip next to a small hanger with the doors wide open and inside the hanger was John's bike. On the right side of the bike is a small plane that John will be flying. John and Tracy walk to the plane.

Tracy opens the door and climbs into the pilot seat while John jumps into the other seat. Tracy and John move out of the hanger. Tracy pulls the plane into takeoff position and takes off into the air. John looks at Tracy. Tracy looks at John, and says "now it's your turn." John takes the wheel and learns to fly, but to land Tracy takes the wheel. When John and Tracy land the aircraft Kim is in the hanger working on the bike to auto land.

Kim tells John to test the bike out on the ramp. On the ramp is a jump that John uses to test out the bike. John lands on the runway after a minute of being in the air. As John drives up to Kim he says "the auto land works well". Kim looks at John "now use the jetpack". John takes the bike over the ramp again and pushes the button. The bike turns into a small jet plane as John takes off into the air. After about a minute or two John returns and lands on the runway.

Kim looks at Tracy "O.K. the auto land works, I'll tell Todd that we are good to go". Kim walks back into the base to report to Todd. Kim tells Todd that John is good to go on the next mission and that the auto land is working. Todd calls John into the base; John gets off the bike and walks back into the base with Tracy. Todd takes John into the backroom, John looks at the toys on the table and starts to pick one up; Kim grabs his hand.

John looks at Kim, "what was that for?" "Hands in your pockets" said Kim, John puts his hands in his pockets. Tracy and Mike giggle as Kim puts the toy back on the table and tells John what the fetchers are and how they work. Todd gives John and the others a folder with a picture inside on the left side of the report.

John looks at Todd "so how is he" Todd tells John the man's name is Dr. Evil Hair and lives on an island in the Atlantic.

"Here is a picture of the mansion and the Island" said Todd. "You need to get close to the Island without Dr. Evil Hair seeing you". "Use the jetpack to fly under the radar and land on the flat side of the Island" "the jetpack has a stealth mode". "The stealth mode will let you land undetected on the Island" said Kim. "Tracy and I will be under the water in Sam". "When you land Tracy and I will meet you on the beach to help you with the mission".

"So what is the mission" asked John. Todd shows another picture to John, "this is the mission, and Dr. Evil Hair has a weapon and this special weapon can create volcanos to erupt all over the world." John looks at Todd, "so how do we stop him from creating volcanos to erupt and save the world from Dr. Evil Hair.?" Tracy responds "Get inside and destroy the weapon ASAP and the plans that built it." "And don't let Dr. Evil Hair get away!" said Todd.

John takes his toys and puts them in his pockets as Tracy and Kim walk out the front and John then walks out the back to the hanger. John gets on the bike and drives off onto the road while Tracy and Kim drive behind John Mike pulls the semi up in front. The back door comes down like a ramp and the three of them drive up into the semi. The back door closes when the three of them enter the semi.

John gets a call from Todd who says "when you get to the docks Tracy and Kim will enter Sam and drive onto the water while you and Mike drive the semi on the road to the next town to find the location of the island from a man name Scarface." John asks "so where can we find him?" You can find him at the motel but he might not tell you where the island is located. John asks "what does he look like?" "He has a scar on the left side of his face across his eye." replied Todd.

John asked "we don't need Tracy and Kim for backup?" Todd said "no, you can handle this guy, just stun him with your phone." John hangs up the phone and puts it in his pocket as Mike pulls up to the docks and opens the backdoor. Tracy and Kim pull Sam out onto the docks and push the button to turn Sam into a sub. Tracy and Kim drive on to the landing and into the water as Mike closes the backdoor. John and Mike drive onto the road to town.

John and Mike get to town and stop at a truck stop for lunch. John orders a burger and Mike orders a burger and two cokes. John looks around and sees the man with a scar on his face; he is with two other people at the counter. John and Mike get their orders and eat lunch. When John was done he went to the restroom, while Mike stays seated at the table watching the man with the scar on his face.

When John returns from the bathroom he gets a refill on his coke and sits down at the table with Mike again. The two of them continue to watch the man with the scar. The other two people that were sitting with the man with the scar get up and leave the counter and walk out the door. Mike goes up to the counter next to the scarred man and orders a refill on his coke, turning toward the scar man Mike asks him where he can find a good motel in town. The scar man tells Mike that there is one down the street about a mile, where he is staying.

Mike asks for the number of the motel and walks back to the table with his coke whispering to John "let's get setup." John and Mike finish their cokes and walk out to the semi and drive off as the scar man watches them leave the truck stop. Mike and John park the semi down past the motel in an abandoned lot. They open the backdoor of the semi and John brings the bike out while Mike closes the backdoor and jumps on the back of the bike with John.

John and Mike go to the motel and check into a room. While looking out the window of their room they see the scar man drive up to his room, he enters and closes the shades. The scar man pulls out his phone and calls Dr. Evil Hair. Meanwhile, John pulls out the phone from his pocket and plugs in the charger. He then plugs into the wall outlet, but the charger is really a phone bug to listen to the conversation. John holds the phone to his ear and listens to the scar man's conversation on the phone.

Mike pulls out the phone from his pocket and calls Todd to tell him that John has found Scarface and they are at the motel. After the conversation John puts his phone on the dresser to charge. John picks up his bag and pulls out a laptop and puts it on the desk.

John opens his laptop and turns it on, the laptop boots up to windows. Mike hangs up his phone and stands next to John who is working on the laptop. As John checks his e-mail he finds a message from one of his friends from school. The message was from Kasey, John e-mails her back.

John hears the door close outside next to their room it's the scar man going out. Mike walks to the window to see if it was him leaving the room. John closes the lid on the laptop and walks to the window with Mike. John sees the Scarface man leave the parking lot. Mike tells John to search the room while he's gone.

John opens the door and walks to the next room where scar man was staying and picks the lock. Mike and John walk into the room; John starts to search for the weapon plans while Mike stands at the window keeping an eye out for the Scarface man. John searches in the dresser, under the bed, then the desk.

John finds a case behind the desk next to the wall next to the dresser. John tries to open the case but it's locked with a key lock. John looks around for the key but no luck; the scar face man must have the key with him. John and Mike go back to their own room to wait for the scar face man to return.

John sits back at the desk and opens the laptop to finish reading his e-mail. Mike taps on Johns' shoulders to tell him that the scar man is back. John looks up at Mike and then goes to the windows to see the scar man. Mike tells John "let's take him know and get the info from him."

Mike and John go outside to talk to the scar man. As John pulls out his phone his hand is shaking and sweat drips down his face. John pushes the stunner/phone into scar man's side and he drops to the ground. Mike and John drag the scar man into the room and lay him on the bed. John goes outside to the bike and from the bag on it pulls out some ties.

John goes back into the room and ties up the scar man as Mike puts a gag on his mouth. Mike and John sit down at the table and play cards in till he wakes up. After about an hour the scar man wakes up, Mike walks over to the scar man and says "We want the plans for Dr. Evil Hair's base on his island."

Scarface looks at Mike and shakes his head then he looks at John and laughs. John pulls out his phone and shows it to the scar man, he laughs again. John puts the phone on low and stuns the scar man again. John looks at him "still funny big man" said John with a smile.

Mike bends down and looks the scar man in the eyes and says "want to talk now?" The scar man starts to tell them where to find the plans to Dr. Evil Hair's base. John looks at Mike "I'll get the flash drive and you keep him here."

John goes outside to his bike and pulls out on to the road towards town. In the meantime, Tracy and Kim are at the docks when Tracy gets a call from John. John tells Tracy that they found the scar man at the motel.

John gives Tracy a heads up on the base and the flash drive with the plans. John drives up to the post office where the scar man hid the flash drive. John parks the bike and looks around the post office for the flash drive. John gets back on the bike and drives back to the motel.

When John drives up to the motel the scar man's car was not there, John runs in the room. John looks for Mike, John finds Mike on the floor tied up. John asks "Where is Scarface? Mike replies "He's gone and don't know where." John run's outside, jumps on the bike and puts his phone in a holder.

John turns on his phone and a tracker pops up on the screen, John put a tracker on scar man's car. John calls Mike to bring the semi to help track the car. Mike gets into the semi and drives on to the road towards John. John gets close to the car and pushes a button on the bike. The bikes weapons come out in the front of the bike and John fires the weapons.

The weapon hits the cars back wheel and the car surfs to the side of the road. The car stops and the scar man runs out of the car John follows him. The scar man hides in an abandoned shed on the side of the road. In the meantime Mike pulls up to the side of the road where John parked the bike.

Mike runs out of the semi and up to John and says "he's in the shed". "I'll go around back and you stay here". Mike runs to the back of the shed and the scar man is stuck. Mike calls to John to help him to pull out the scar man who is stuck in the shed walls.

John runs to the back of the shed just in time to see Mike pull out the scar man. With a smile on John's face he laughs out when Mike drags him out. John helps Mike drag him out of the shed and ties him up with a rope. John takes him to the semi and puts him in the back room as Mike pulls out a chair.

Mike sits him down on the chair and looks him in the face "nice try little man." John stares at the scar man, "the flash drive was not at the post office." The scar man looks at John and says "the flash drive is in the drop box at the corner genius." Mike looks down at the scar man "where are you mailing it to?"

John pulls his phone out of his pocket and shocks the scar man "where?" said John. The scar man begins to shake in fear and tells Mike and John that a man gave him the flash drive. That he told him to send the drive to an address on the paper. "So where is the paper?" John asks. "It's in my belly." He replied.

Mike exclaimed "you ate it!" "Yes" said the scar man "and I don't know the address." John looks at Mike and says "we have to hook him up to the mind probe to get the address." The scar man's eyes widen "what is the mind probe?" Mike goes into the back and of the semi and gets the mind probe.

Mike puts the probe down on the table and John ties the scar man to the chair. Mike hooks up the mind probe to the scar man and then hooks in the wires. John turns it on, the scar man is frozen in the chair and Mike and John wait. The mind probe makes a sound then Mike asks the scar man about the address.

John looks at the mind probe, a piece of paper pops out of the probe on the right side. John pulls out the paper and looks at it. The paper from the probe has an address on it. The address is not only somewhere out of town but out of state. John hands the paper to Mike he and turns the mind probe off.

Mike calls Todd that they have an address where the flash drive is located. On the phone Todd tells Mike to bring the scar man back to the base. Mike tells John to put the scar man in the cage in the back room. John put the scan man in the cage in the back room and closes the door.

John walks back into the back of the semi where Mike is talking to Todd on the phone. Mike tells John to load up his bike in the back of the semi. Mike hangs up the phone and walks to the front of the semi and into the driver's seat. John loads his bike into the back of the semi and close up the back.

Mike pulls out onto the road and drives back to the base. In the back John is on the phone, John has called Tracy and Kim to tell them that they have the scar man. Tracy and Kim are at the base with Todd hanging out in the living area. John and Mike continued back to the base to meet up with the others.

John and Mike get back to the base with the scar man and locked him up. Todd walks up to the door and asks the scar man what is in the case. The scar man tells Todd what is in the brief case and where the key is. Todd walks back in to the other room John where is the brief case?

Dr. Evil Hairs Island (Demo)

John tells Todd it's on the front seat of the semi. Todd walks outside to get it. Todd opens the door of the semi and picks up the case and goes back inside. Todd walks into the back room and places the case on the table. He opens the case with the key that the scar man gave him in the cell.

When Todd opens the case it was what the scar man said it was, full of papers. Todd takes out some papers and looks through them and finds a map. The map has an "x" on one of the islands and the island had a name next to it. Todd takes the map to Mike and shows it to the others.

Kim goes to the computer to look up the name of the island on the map to find out more. "I think its Dr. Evil Hairs island" said John. Kim looks at John; "it may be." Todd looking at John and says "I think it's where his base is located." "Kim will do some more research on the name and get back to you John."

Todd walks out of the room and takes the map to the scar man; to ask him. Todd asks the scar man if this is the island that Dr. Evil Hairs base is located on? The scar man looks at Todd and asks for a deal. Todd stares at the scar man and said "O.K. what is the deal you want?"

The scar man started to tell Todd his deal and that the island is Dr. Evil Hairs Island. Mike walks in, "so what do we have?" "We have the islands location." What does the flash drive do "the flash drive is the code to unlock the base". "The flash drive has the plans on it not a code" said Mike.

"The flash drive has both the plans and a password code to open the doors". "So how did you send it to" asked Todd? "Dr. Evil Hair's younger sister". Todd and Mike go to join the others; in the other room; to tell

John and the women. Todd tells John that we need to get the flash drive.

Kim and Tracy agree with Todd and Mike on getting the flash drive to get inside the base. John agrees with Kim and Tracy; John takes the address and walks out the door. John opens the back of the semi and jumps on to the bike. John pulls out the bike and on to the road towards the address on the paper.

Mike and Tracy along with Kim jump into the semi and follow John to the address. John gets to the address and the semi stays out of sight down the road. In the semi the Kim goes over to the table and pushes a button under the table. Just then the back room turns into a mobile base.

John parks the bike over at the house next door and walks up to the door. When John knocks on the door the homeowner opens the door, and John explains how he lives next door and if he can stay and leave his bike next to the house. The owners agree to let John stay and spy on the house.

John called the others in the semi to tell them that he is staying at the house. Kim told John to keep her in the loop on the house and they will back him up. In the semi Tracy and Kim are looking at the screen on the wall. The screen shows Johns bike and John in the house where he is staying.

That night Dr. Evil Hair's sister leaves the house and gets into her car with her boyfriend. Her boyfriend drove out of the driveway and on to the road to go to dinner. John walks out of the door and to the house next door and picks the lock on the back door. John opens it and walks inside to look for the flash drive.

John looks in the living room and the bedroom but, no flash drive. John calls the others to ask them to help search for the flash drive. Tracy and Kim agree and arrive in just minutes. Todd shows up as well and starts to walk inside, but for some reason he stops at the mailbox and looks inside.

And to his amazement the flash drive was still in the mailbox! Todd calls John and the others, Todd smiles at John and holds up the flash drive that he founded in the mailbox. John looks at Tracy and Kim and they all start cracking up with laughter. Todd takes the flash drive as John goes next door to get his bike from the side of the house. John knocks on the door and tells the homeowners "thank you" for their help. John loads up his bike in the semi to get started for the trip back to the base.
